Summary vs Incident-based

NIBRS Components
(new)

One Electronic specification

Up to 10 Offenses per Incident

52 Offense classifications

58 Data Elements

Data Produced as a CAD/RMs by-product

SRS Components
(old)

12 Separate Monthly Reports

10 Offense Classifications

Aggregate-only Offenses

Hierarchy Rule

Manual Data Process or CAD/RM by-product

BENEFITS

Expanded Offense Definitions
Expanded Victim-to-Offender relationship
Greater Data Quantity and Quality

Timely Data Submissions

Improved Methodology for Compilation, Analysis, and Publication of Data

Complete and Detailed Incident Information

Crime Emphasis
- Drug-related
- Computer-based

Data Collection
- Not Restricted
- Linkages can be established between variables
- Regional LEA can share information easily

Types of Offenses
- 24 Categories
- 52 Group A
- 10 Group B
- 58 Data Elements

Incident Specifics
- Injury Type
- Location
- Date & Time
- Attempted vs. Completed

Weapon Reporting
- Detailed Information
- All Violent Crimes